WATCH OUT — EAR SAYS /ER/

My purple purse was gone! I turned my pockets inside out, but it was not there. I was so upset!

Dad came with me to search. We walked up and down the street. "It must be here," said Dad.

I looked under the bench in the park.
I searched in the ferns. Not there!

"A currant bun?" said the baker. But I had no coins to pay! I turned away, sad.

Further on, we passed a church. Past more stalls and tall garden walls. I started to give up.

Then a market lady held up a purple purse! "I found this on the kerb. Is it yours?"

I turned the purse over. My coins were still in it! "Thank you!" I burst out, smiling.

Dad and I walked home in the warm afternoon. I held the purse close to my chest. "She was so kind," I said.
