TRICKY WORDS — TELL YOUR CHILD THESE STRAIGHT AWAY

fall

The girl had a pot of new blue glue.
She drew a bird on a card. "This card is for Mum," she said to Dad. She pressed the blue glue on — but she pressed too hard!

The blue glue spread across the desk and stuck to her hand! She pulled and she shook. Then the card flew off her hand, down the hall and down the stairs!

The card landed right on the cat at the foot of the stairs. The cat grew cross and ran. It had blue glue and bits of card stuck in its fur!

The cat flew into the front room and jumped on the shelf. It bumped a blue cup of tea. The cup fell and tea ran down on to the new rug.

Then the cat ran into the kitchen. Dad was at the sink. He turned to look, but he did not see the wet patch on the ground. So he slid and fell with a bump! "This is all due to that blue glue!" he said.

Then the cat ran out into the garden.
It jumped on the wall and bumped a pot of blue flowers. The pot started to fall! The girl threw her arms out and rescued it just in time.

"That cat!" said Dad. They cleaned up all the glue and the mess. The girl wiped the blue stain off the desk. The cat just sat and chewed its fur clean.

At last, the card was finished. Mum came home and the girl gave it to her. "You drew this for me?" said Mum. "It is true," said the girl. "And it was all due to the new blue glue!"
